Doors of wisdom never close.

Benjamin Franklin
Congratulations on your admission to Penn! On behalf of Student Registration and Financial Services, welcome to the University of Pennsylvania.

We know that paying for college can be complicated, and selecting the best financial programs is important to you and your family. This booklet presents information to help you with this decision.

We encourage you to read our literature and visit our website where you can find answers to many commonly asked questions.

Please contact our office if you need assistance. Welcome to the Penn family!

Sincerely,

Elaine P. Varas
Senior University Director of Financial Aid

Tuition and fees are fixed costs. These mandatory fees include the general fee, the educational technology fee, and the student health clinical fee.

The housing allowance is based on the freshman room rate in the University College Houses. Freshmen are required to live in on-campus housing during their first year of enrollment.

The meal allowance represents the cost of the first-year dining plan through Penn Dining. Freshmen are required to participate in a meal plan during their first year of enrollment.

The books and supplies allowance provides for the annual cost for required textbooks and supplies.

The transportation allowance provides for local transportation costs. The approximate cost of two round-trips home may be added based on your permanent address.

Personal expenses include allowances for clothing, recreation, etc.

Other Expenses

Other expenses are: laboratory fees for certain courses, the New Student Orientation fee, and student health insurance if you are not covered under your parents’ plan. Upon request, loan funding may be available to assist you with these costs. For an explanation of fees, please visit the SRFS website at www.srfs.upenn.edu/paying/fees.htm.

Student Health Insurance

All full-time students must submit health and immunization records and maintain comprehensive health insurance as a condition of enrollment. Students who do not have insurance, whose plans do not provide coverage in the Philadelphia area, or whose plans do not meet Penn’s criteria for alternative insurance will automatically be enrolled in the Penn Student Insurance Plan (PSIP). For details, visit the Student Health Service’s site at www.vpul.upenn.edu/shs.
How to Pay for Your Penn Education

Penn Payment Plan
The Penn Payment Plan is one way to extend your payments. Estimate the total amount of your payment each semester (Fall and Spring only), and make four equal installments to pay all or a portion of your family’s contribution. For more information, visit www.srfs.upenn.edu/payment-plan.

Tuition Prepayment Plan
Prepay up to four years of tuition and mandatory fees at the 2019-2020 rate, thus saving on future tuition increases. Although we cannot predict future costs, tuition and fees increases have remained under 4% in recent years.

A Word About Loans
If you choose to borrow, we recommend that you borrow only what you need, even if you are eligible for a higher amount, and only to accomplish a specific goal, such as to replace all or part of your expected family contribution.

Types of Loans
Federal Direct Loans
Federal loans (Direct Loan for students, which may be subsidized or unsubsidized, and Direct PLUS Loan for parents) should be the first choice for U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Federal loans often have better terms, and usually offer loan consolidation, flexible repayment options, and income-based repayment.

Private Alternative Education Loans
A number of private lenders and other financial institutions offer education loans to students. These loans are marketed by lenders who may bypass the schools, mailing information directly to you and your family. These loans are not subsidized and may carry higher interest rates and fees than federal loans. A co-signer is often needed, especially for international students. If you think you need a private alternative loan, visit the loans section of our website at www.srfs.upenn.edu/loans.

For More Information
We urge you to educate yourself about student loans and repayment. These websites offer additional information that is helpful:

Payment Options

You and your family are likely thinking about how to pay your family contribution. Will you pay it in full at the beginning of each term? Would you prefer to budget it throughout the semester? Or would you rather extend your payments over a longer term with a loan? There are several options to assist you in planning in advance to cover any existing balance.

Federal Direct Loan
› Available to U.S. citizens and permanent residents who are enrolled at least half-time in a degree program.
› Freshmen can borrow up to $5,500 per year ($9,500 for independent students). Of that total amount, up to $3,500 may be subsidized.
› Interest rate is 5.05% for loans disbursed between July 1, 2018 and June 30, 2019. Origination fee is 1.062%.*
› Repayment begins six months after graduation or withdrawal from the University. Consolidation, deferment (for grad school), and income-based repayment options are available.

Federal Direct PLUS Loan
› Available to parents of U.S. citizens and permanent residents who are enrolled at least half-time in a degree program. Borrowers must undergo a credit check.
› Can borrow up to the student’s Cost of Attendance minus other financial aid received.
› Interest rate is 7.6% for loans disbursed between July 1, 2018 and June 30, 2019. Origination fee is 4.248%.*
› Repayment begins 60 days after final loan disbursement.

Penn Payment Plan
› Available to any Penn family.
› Families can budget a semester’s educational expenses over a four-month period.
› Plans are interest-free. Families must pay a $45 enrollment fee each semester.

Tuition Prepayment Plan
› Prepay up to four years of tuition and mandatory fees at the 2019-2020 rate, thus saving on future tuition increases.
› Prepayment amount for Class of 2023 is $231,080.

*Interest rates are scheduled to change July 2019, fees will change October 1, 2019

NOTE TO INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: If you choose to borrow, please visit our website to learn about alternative loan options, as in most cases you will not be eligible for U.S. federal loan programs. Note that international borrowers generally need a U.S. citizen or permanent resident co-signer.
Receiving and Paying Your Bill

Penn.Pay

Penn.Pay is the University’s electronic billing and payment system. Here you can view your account activity, make payments, and set up authorized users. In order for your parents to access Penn.Pay, you must invite them to be “authorized users.” Review the “MUST DO” List on page 5 for instructions.

Receiving Your Bill

Students and Authorized users will receive notification via email when a new electronic bill is available, beginning with the Fall Term statement in July. See the billing schedule below for details.

Paying Your Bill*

There are several ways to pay your bill:

Online using ACH

Use Penn.Pay to schedule both the payment date and amount to pay from your checking or savings account. Accounts must be with a U.S. financial institution.

Online using a Credit Card

Use Penn.Pay and pay with a credit card. A convenience fee will be assessed and will appear on your credit card billing statement. Note that Penn does not receive any compensation or portion of the convenience fee for providing credit card payment options.

Check

Pay from a U.S. checking or savings account. Payment remittance slips must accompany your payment and can be printed from Penn.Pay.

Wire Transfer

See the SRFS website for details at www.srfs.upenn.edu/paymybill/wire-transfer.htm.

In Person

Present your payment remittance slips and check to the University Cashier, located in the lobby of the Franklin Building, 3451 Walnut Street. Payment remittance slips can be printed from Penn.Pay.

A late payment penalty of 1.5% of any past-due balance will be assessed monthly. A past-due balance may result in your student account being placed on financial hold which can restrict future registration, receipt of your diploma and transcript requests.

SRFS “Must Do” List

Note: To complete this list, login to Penn InTouch, using your secure PennKey and password, which will be sent to you in May. Penn InTouch is your secure gateway to academic, financial, and personal information.

Provide your Emergency Contact Information
Penn’s Division of Public Safety encourages you to provide personal emergency contact information for use with the UPennAlert Emergency Notification System & Penn Guardian. Providing current information is the best way to ensure you will be reached in the event of an emergency. Partner with Penn by providing a phone number (preferably a cell phone) where you can best be reached. You may also register other contacts such as parents or guardians, so that University officials can communicate with them as well.

UPenn Alert: From Penn InTouch, select “Profile, Privacy & Emergency,” then “Emergency Contact” to enter your information to register for UPennAlert.

Penn Guardian: To learn more, and register for Penn Guardian, visit www.publicsafety.upenn.edu/pennguardian/.

Give Permission to Share Academic/Financial Information
By federal law (FERPA), the University generally cannot discuss your academic or financial records with a third party, including your parents. To authorize Penn to share academic and/or financial data with a parent, guardian, sponsor, or other third party, you must designate them explicitly. Read more about FERPA on the next page.

From Penn InTouch, select “Profile, Privacy & Emergency,” then “Share Academic/Financial Information.”

Set up Penn.Pay Users and Payment Accounts for your Student Bills
Penn.Pay is Penn’s online billing and payment system. As a student, you can access Penn.Pay with your PennKey. To enable others (such as parents) to also receive/pay your bill, you must invite them as an authorized user.

From Penn InTouch, select “Student Billing Account,” then “Pay Your Bill/Penn.Pay.”

Enroll in Direct Deposit
Enroll in Direct Deposit to receive wages from any future campus employment opportunities. Direct Deposit ensures your funds will be deposited into your personal U.S. bank account. Refer to our link for a list of local banks at www.srfs.upenn.edu/banking/index.htm

*To enroll in Direct Deposit for student wages, go to Penn InTouch, select “Student Employment” then “Enroll in Direct Deposit.”

For student account refunds, you will need to enroll in Direct Deposit within the Penn.Pay site.
FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. Your educational information, both financial and academic, is yours regardless of who pays your educational expenses. The law requires that students provide written permission before we can share either financial or academic information with any third party, including parents or spouses.

To stipulate with whom SRFS can speak about your student billing account and academic record, review "Share Academic/Financial Information" on the "MUST DO" List on page 5.

POLICY ON EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

The University of Pennsylvania’s special character is reflected in the diversity of the Penn community. Diversity is prized at Penn as a central component of its mission and helps create an educational and working environment that best supports the University’s commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and scholarship. We seek talented faculty, students, and staff who will constitute a vibrant community that draws on the strength that comes with a substantive institutional commitment to diversity along dimensions of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, citizenship status, age, religion, disability, veteran status, interests, perspectives, and socioeconomic status.

Grounded in equal opportunity, nondiscrimination, and affirmative action, Penn’s robust commitment to diversity is fundamental to the University’s mission of advancing knowledge, educating leaders for all sectors of society, and public service. The University of Pennsylvania prohibits unlawful discrimination based on race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, creed, national or ethnic origin, citizenship status, age, disability, veteran status, or any other legally protected class.

Penn is committed to ensuring that its academic, social, recreational programs, and services as well as opportunities for admission and employment are available on an equitable and nondiscriminatory basis without regard to an individual’s legally protected class status. Penn also has written affirmative action programs to address any underrepresentation of women, minorities, people with disabilities, and qualified covered veterans. The Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Programs, in collaboration with the Division of Human Resources and the Office of the Provost, oversees the implementation and administration of the University’s equal opportunity, affirmative action, and nondiscrimination policies and programs.

The University recognizes the right of members of the community to raise questions and pursue complaints of discrimination and adheres to a strict policy that prohibits retaliation for doing so. Questions, complaints of alleged discrimination, or concerns regarding these policies or their implementation may be directed to the Executive Director, Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Programs, Sansom Place East, Suite 228, 3600 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6106, (215) 898-6993 or Fax number (215) 746-7088.
