MEMORANDUM

TO: International Student Work-Study Award Recipients

FROM: John Rudolph, Manager

DATE: August 7, 2017

SUBJECT: 2017-2018 Academic Year - International Student Work-Study Program

Work-Study Program Dates

The Academic Year (fall/spring) work-study program begins on August 21, 2017 and ends on May 13, 2018. The work-study pay schedule is available on the Student Employment website.

How Can Students Find a Job?

International students are limited to on-campus employment, which is defined as working for Penn, on Penn Payroll, and on Penn premises. Some examples of non-Penn sites are: CHOP (including Pediatrics), Christian Association, Hillel, International House, Monell Chemical Senses Center, Penn Newman Center, The Daily Pennsylvanian, The Wistar Institute, and AppleOne Employment Services, etc. This is not an exhaustive list of non-Penn sites. For more information and for off-campus work authorization, meet with an International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) advisor. For hours and appointments go to the ISSS website at <http://global.upenn.edu/iss/hours>.

It is the student's responsibility to conduct a job search, apply for jobs, interview, and be hired. A student may only work for a supervisor who has a job listed for the academic year on the Student Employment website.

Each job listing contains the supervisor's contact information. It is important for the student to follow the supervisor's instructions. Since a supervisor may have more than one job listed, note the job number.

The student must present a copy of their class schedule to the supervisor at the time of the interview, in order to ensure there is no conflict between class times and the work schedule.

Tips For Finding A Job

- If you have not already done so, prepare a resume. When a supervisor has multiple inquiries about a job, the supervisor may use the resume to select students to be interviewed.

- When applying for a job, include in the subject line of your e-mail the job number and title. Your e-mail should give a brief synopsis of your work experience and skills, and any other information you believe is relevant.
- Apply for more than one job. Keep your options open.
- Be prompt for the interview, and dress appropriately.
- If you do not receive a response from a supervisor within a reasonable amount of time, you may send a friendly reminder expressing your continued interest in the job.

On-Campus Job Appointment

New student employees will need a valid Social Security Number in order to work in the United States. Before applying for a Social Security Number, you need to have an on-campus job first. The instructions and application for Social Security: On-Campus Work Authorization for F-1 and J-1 Students is located at the International Student and Scholar Services \(ISSS\) website. After applying for a Social Security Number, it generally takes 10 business days for your card to arrive, so plan accordingly.

A student DOES NOT create a Student Employment Management System (SEMS) account in order to be hired. Through the supervisor’s SEMS account, a student is appointed online by the hiring supervisor to a job number using the student’s Penn ID number.

An e-mail confirming the student’s job appointment will be sent to the student, supervisor, and department SEMS coordinator.

New student employees are required to complete the W-4 (Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate) and the online I-9 (Employment Eligibility Verification). Your employing department’s business administrator will instruct you accordingly.

The student must also present the following documents to the employing department’s business administrator.

- FNIF (Completed Foreign National Information Form) available at the following link www.finance.upenn.edu/forms/fniform.pdf.
  - Social Security Card (Copy of Social Security Card or copy of the receipt for application for a Social Security Number – Form 5028)
  - I-94 (Copy of INS arrival/departure record)
  - I-20 (Copy of IND Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) Student
- OR
- DS-2019 (Copy of INS Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor (J-1) status and written work authorization from ISSS (valid up to 12 months at a time))

Online I-9 Form (Employment Eligibility Verification)

Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, all new employees must present original documentation to your employer that proves identity and authorization to work in the United States. Before you leave home for campus, please bring with you documentation. See list of acceptable documents below. All documents must be unexpired.

The Affordable Care Act \(ACA\) requires Penn to notify all new hires of their health care coverage options. The ACA notice will display prior to the completion of Section 1 of the I-9. Note: Information for students about the ACA is available on the Student Health Service website at www.vpul.upenn.edu/shs/acafaq.php.

How Are Student Employees Paid?

Federal and University regulations require that weekly hours must be supported by a listing of clock hours worked for each student. University regulations require that a student employee must be paid weekly.

Most University departments are using online e-timesheets. The employing department's business administrator will instruct the student regarding the procedures for completing the e-timesheet. The e-timesheet requires a listing of clock hours, and is electronically signed by the student, and supervisor. Once the supervisor electronically signs the e-timesheet, it is sent to the department business administrator for approval and submission to the payroll system.

A student cannot be paid for lunch, holidays, sick time, and other time off, or for receiving instruction in the classroom, laboratory, or other academic setting.

Payroll Taxes

International students have the same taxes withheld that United States students do. Students that are from a country that has a tax treaty with the United States may be able to claim a refund of the taxes withheld when they file their yearly income tax returns. If you have any questions regarding taxation, please go to the Payroll Tax Office, Room 310 in the Franklin Building, 3451 Walnut Street. The service window hours are Monday through Friday, from 10:00am to 2:00pm.

University Policy on Acceptable Use of Electronic Resources

A student employee is required to comply with the University's Policy on Acceptable Use of Electronic Resources as summarized below.

The policy is based on the principle that the electronic information environment is provided to support University business and its mission of education, research and service. Other uses are secondary. Uses that threaten the integrity of the system; the function of non-University equipment that can be accessed through the system; the privacy or actual or perceived safety of others; or that are otherwise illegal are forbidden.

By using University electronic information systems you assume personal responsibility for their appropriate use and agree to comply with this policy and other applicable University policies, as well as City, State and Federal laws and regulations.

The policy defines penalties for infractions, up to and including loss of system access, employment termination or expulsion. In addition some activities may lead to risk of legal liability, both civil and criminal.

For more detailed information about the Policy on Acceptable Use of Electronic Resources, please go to the Office of the Provost at <http://provost.upenn.edu/policies/pennbook>.

Frequently Asked Questions

How Many Hours Can a Student Work Per Week?

A student's primary responsibility is their academic achievement. Work cannot be a priority.

When classes are in session, students (full-time and part-time) are not permitted to work more than a total of 20 hours per week.

International students (F-1) during school breaks (Thanksgiving, Winter, and Spring), may work full-time, up to a maximum of 40 hours per week.

How Can A Student Sign-Up for Direct Deposit?

Students are highly encouraged to sign up for direct deposit of their work-study wages. Once you establish a U.S bank account at one of the local banks located near the Penn campus, you can sign up for direct deposit by going to the Student Employment website at www.sfs.upenn.edu/seo, and click Direct Deposit.

How Can A Student View the Pay Stub?

Student employees can view their pay stub online through the Penn portal website and follow the instructions below.

- Under the General tab, go to Payroll and Tax section, click My Pay
- Enter your PennKey and Password
- Displays the most recent pay period. If you wish to view another pay period go to Issue Date and choose the pay period.

How Many Jobs May A Student Have?

While it is preferred that a student have one job, we recognize the need for a student to work an adequate number of hours per week (within established limits) in order to cover personal expenses. A student's number one priority is academic achievement.

The Student Employment Management System (SEMS) can only post two job appointments at any given time. Therefore, a student is limited to two jobs at any given time.

A student must have permission from their supervisor and business administrator at the first job before seeking a second job. The supervisor and business administrator has the right to deny the student's request to work at a second job. Their decision is final.

What is the Procedure for Changing or Leaving a Job?

The supervisor must be notified when a student intends to change or leave a job. A student is expected to give one week's notice before leaving a position. This gives the department the necessary time to find a replacement for the student, or to adjust the work schedules of remaining employees in order to offset the staffing shortage. Releasing a student from a job is done online by the supervisor. An e-mail confirming the student's release will be sent to the department's SEMS coordinator.
